Travel Cost FAQ

1. What currency is used in Tanzania? What is the exchange rate?

The Tanzanian Shilling (TZS) is the national currency in Tanzania. It comes in coins and cash in denominations up to 10,000 TZS. The United States Dollar (USD) is often the preferred currency of lodging and transportation vendors. You'll use a mix of both currencies during your stay. The exchange rate in 2022 has averaged around 2300 TZS for 1 USD.

2. When do I exchange my USD for Tsh?

You will get the best rate of exchange at the airport in Dar Es Salaam immediately upon arrival. Guests are encouraged to exchange personal spending money there. Group leaders should exchange enough group funds to cover expenses before they arrive in Iringa (e.g. lodging at Wista's Inn and lunch along the way).

3. What about ATMs? ATMs are now readily accessible in Iringa Town. Local fees vary from TSH 15,4000 (Barclays) to TSH 8000 (CRDB) per transaction; currently Diamond Trust Bank charges no additional fee. Daily withdrawal limit is set at TSH 400,000.

Contact your home bank to ensure that your card will work in Tanzania and for more information about fees and surcharges they may impose.

4. What about Credit Cards?

Tanzania is primarily a cash-only economy; especially in Iringa credit cards are rarely, if ever, accepted. The one major exception is for entrance to Ruaha National Park where fees must be paid via credit card. To avoid difficulties, a BKB-SPAS debit card is available for Group Leaders to use for entrance and concession fees. Credit cards may also be used at some major vendors and shops in Dar es Salaam. Visa and Master Card are more widely accepted than American Express.

5. Can we send money over before departure so we don't have to carry lots of cash with us? For safety and security purposes, groups are encouraged to wire travel funds for major expenses (i.e. transportation and lodging) to Iringa through the Saint Paul Area Synod ahead of their trip. To allow time for processing, money should be sent to David Roinas at david.roinas@spas-elca.org at the synod office at least six weeks prior to your departure date. There is no additional surcharge on Travel Funds wired through the Synod Office.

6. How much personal money should travelers bring?

Suggested amount of personal money for each individual is $200-500 USD. PLEASE NOTE: All US currency should be in $100 bills and must be 2006 or newer—$50 and $20 bills do not get a good exchange rate.

7. What are Bega Kwa Bega's cancellation policies?

Apart from our Travel Fee, refundable in full up to six-weeks before travel, the Saint Paul Area Synod Bega Kwa Bega office does not have a blanket cancellation policy. Specific terms and conditions vary from vendor to vendor, if you would like a copy of current cancellation policies for our preferred vendors, please email begakwabega@spas-elca.org.

8. Can we use alternate vendors for our travel in Iringa?

The Saint Paul Area Synod Bega Kwa Bega office has negotiated preferred arrangements with vendors in Iringa. If your group would prefer to use alternate vendors, please email begakwabega@spas-elca.org early in your travel planning process. We'll do our best to accommodate your wishes however specific arrangements will be negotiated on a case-by-case basis.
