Adequate compensation for rostered ministers matters to us in the Saint Paul Area Synod. Recommended guidelines for compensation are revised each year and are posted on the synod's website. Health care and contributions to a pension for rostered ministers and their families is a significant aspect of overall compensation, which is set by the calling congregation, agency or institution.

In comparison to the previous year, is your compensation for 2023: Increased Flat Reduced

Does your workplace provide any of the following:

 Social Security allowance?

 Additional pension contribution (beyond recommended 10%)?

___ Contribution to a health savings or health spending account?

What health insurance plan does your employer provide:

___ Portico Gold + Portico Silver Portico Bronze ___ Other plan (please describe below)

Would you like a conversation with the bishop about your level of compensation or financial concerns you are facing? Yes No
